PART III.

Legislative Measures and Rules thereunder.

REGULATION No. IX OF 1918.

A Regulation to extend the period of the present additional members of the Mysore Legislative Council.

(Received the assent of His Highness the Maharaja on the 2nd day of October 1918).

Whereas it is expedient further to extend the period of the present additional members of the Mysore Legislative Council; His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to enact as follows:—

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Mysore Legislative Council Regulation, 1907, as amended by Regulation, IX of 1917, the period of appointment of the existing additional members of the Council shall be deemed to continue till and to cease on the 1st day of November 1919.

M. VISVESVARAYA,
Dewan.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

According to Section 2 of Regulation, IX of 1917, (The Regulation further to amend the Mysore Legislative Council Regulation, 1907) the term of the existing additional members of the Legislative Council was made to expire on the 1st November 1918, so that the elections for the Legislative Council both by the Representative Assembly Members and by District Electorates might synchronise with the elections of members to the Representative Assembly. But in April 1918 Government ordered the postponement of the general elections of members to the Representative Assembly by one year, and it is therefore deemed necessary to postpone the elections to the Legislative Council also by one year. The Bill has therefore been framed to extend the period of the present members up to 1st November 1919.
